ORDER:-

The Director of Prosecutions, Hyderabad in the letter 4th read above has stated that till now, the post of Director of Prosecutions (Head of the Prosecutions Department) being filled up by a District and Sessions Judge Grade-I on deputation from the Judicial Department. The District and Sessions Judge has got his own Scale of Pay in the Judicial Department, as such, the Government have not brought the post of Director of Prosecutions within the purview of the Pay Revision Commission to assign Scale of Pay. Sri Ch.Vidyasagar Rao (now retired) is the first person promoted as Director of Prosecutions (Head of the Prosecutions Department) from Prosecution Service vide reference 2nd read above. In pursuance of his promotion, it became necessary to bring the post of Director of Prosecutions within the purview of the Pay Revision Commission to assign scale of pay.

The Director of Prosecutions, Hyderabad has also stated that the IX Pay Revision Commission has recommended scales of pay of Rs.41550-55660 to the Directors of certain Departments i.e Technical Education Department, Animal Husbandry Department, who are promoted from their respective Departments, and requested to fix up the pay of the Director of Prosecutions, on par with the other Departments.

Government after careful examination of the matter hereby decided to assign the scale of pay of Rs.37600 – 54360 (R.P.S.,2010) to the post of Director of Prosecutions under the State Pay Scale, for the promotees.

The Director of Prosecutions, Telangana, Hyderabad shall take necessary action accordingly.

The orders issued with the concurrence of the Finance (HRM IV) Dept vide their U.O.Note No.1563/21/HRM IV/2014, Dt 5.8.2014.
